

7101

HexArmor®

The Rig Lizard® Fluid 7101 delivers high-performance protection. With a full dip for fluid and water resistance over a nylon and spandex blend shell, this Rig Lizard Series glove is equipped for some of the toughest jobs on site. In addition to a sandy nitrile palm dip for superior grip and abrasion resistance, the 7101 also features our highly flexible IR-X® Impact Exoskeleton™, so workers hands are protected from smash and pinch injuries.
